

Toolkit for co-production

What is co-production?

Co-production is the act of working together in equal partnership to achieve a common goal, it's about bringing together our professionals, patients and carers, to create a vision of what our services should look like but it's about more than the end goal. It's about providing opportunities for the people who use our services day in and day out, to get their voices heard and act on real meaningful change. Alongside this it can also be a chance for them to grow, build confidence and learn new skills.

What's important to people who use our services?

Feeling involved

Feeling listened to

Feeling comfortable in discussions

Feeling meaningful

Feeling valued

Feeling supported

Benefits to co-production

What benefits does co-production have for patients?

- Allows them to voice concerns
- Provides opportunities
- Engaging
- Helps to find a purpose
- Key part of helping people develop

What benefits does co-production have for staff?

- Meaningful impact
- Quality
- Forms working relationships
- Celebrates success
- Generates drive and focus

Barriers to co-production

Culture
Confidence
True representation
Isolation
Patient type

How we can overcome some of these barriers

- Highlight and celebrate success
- Offer training to people with lived experience to help them get more involved and gain confidence
- Recruit champions
- Co-produce in group sessions

“With co-production, I feel it’s not all about the end result, it’s about providing me with opportunities to further develop my skills and confidence”.

Steps to start co-production

STEP 1

Will this new improvement or process affect our service users and carers?

STEP 2

Highlight any relevant individuals or groups that could support you with this work.

STEP 3

Engage with your stakeholders via workshops and development sessions.

STEP 4

Decide how regular engagements will be and keep your stakeholders informed.

STEP 5

How will this be sustained and measured?

Keep it S.A.M.

S

Straightforward

A

Accessible

M

Meaningful

Find out more

For more information and support on co-production, please contact:

Tom Nicklin

Engagement Lead for Transforming Care

E: tom.nicklin@nhs.net

T: 07816 089106

Co-production Charter

Co-production plays such a vital role in our work across the partnership and we felt it would be great to keep track of it! This charter has been co-produced with both professionals and stakeholders to help you keep track of your co-produced projects in one easy format.

Project objectives

List the five main project goals

- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5

Where will it take place?

How will you encourage people to get involved?

Who is involved?

List the people in your team e.g. James, Carer

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

What examples of similar projects do you have?

Asset bank

What resources do you have and what are you missing?

Have you kept it S.A.M?

- S Straightforward
- A Accessible
- M Meaningful

“With co-production, I feel it’s not all about the end result, it’s about providing me with opportunities to further develop my skills and confidence”.

People who are impacted/get a say

In terms of your project focus, who tends to be impacted by decisions that are made and who tends to make those decisions?

Impacted

Has a say

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

How long do you have for each stage of your project?

Days	Thinking	Planning	Recruiting	Doing	Evaluating	Sharing	Future plan
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31

How often will you review your progress?

Days Weeks Months

What extra support might you need?

Co-production can also encourage people to grow, build confidence and learn new skills.

Evaluation

What worked well?

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

What didn't?

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

What can we recycle for another project?

So what?

What impact did this add on our service users?

“ ”

What were the outcomes?

How are you going to share your learning?

